Biography continued...

An alumni of the UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI MUSIC PROGRAM, David received a Bachelor's Degree in Music in 1991, is an accomplished Jazz Pianist, and was in the UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI JAZZ VOCAL ENSEMBLE all throughout college. David played in many jazz, pop and rock bands throughout college; He also plays drums and harmonica, and is a knowledgeable computer music sequencer, and is proficient in Digidesign Pro Tools, Logic, Ableton Live, Reason and Sibelius software.

COMPOSITION

David recently re-staged "BEWARE THE EYES OF MARS," A Musical About Alienation, in Downtown Ft. Lauderdale in March of 2006. In addition to composing the book and music, David also co-directed the show, which had 24 players and 24 musical numbers. Originally performed at the University of Miami in 1991, this fanatastical musical was updated with new music and storyline, and was a benefit for 'Kids In Distress'. David computer sequenced the entire musical score, which was used for the live production. A promotional video of the stage show and a 2006 cast CD will be available soon.

David won an award for one of his original songs in the MUSIC CITY SONG FESTIVAL (1991). He also arranged and computer-sequenced the scores to "VINCENT" (1991), and a musical review using "MAME," "HAIR," and "SIDE BY SIDE" (1993), and was musical director and accompanist for Miami American Sr. High School's production of "THE RUNAWAYS" (1996). He also wrote and produced the music for "TERROR ON CHURCH STREET," a horror show in Church Street Station, Orlando, FL (1997).

David recorded his third full-length album, "COCKTAILS WITH DAVE," a studio album of Broadway and lounge lizard favorites (2006). Dave shows his sophisticated mellow side with acoustic piano and voice, and a few big band numbers. He also recorded the album, "I GOT YOU, DAVE!," a Live Rock 'n' Roll Sing-Along Piano Bar CD (1999). Recorded live in the piano bar, it's just Dave, his piano, and a bunch of drunk Dave fans! David recently opened his own Protools TDM HD recording studio in Fort Lauderdale, FL, called Delrizian Studios. He is currently producing several new albums and commercials in his new studio, Delrizian Studios.
